Finnigan’s Wake is a classic Irish Pub and restaurant, complete with dark woods, full bar and Irish fare. You can’t go wrong with their fish and chips, corned beef and cabbage or Guinness stew. If you’re feeling a little more adventurous, try their Scotch Eggs – hard boiled eggs, wrapped in Irish sausage, then deep fried.

40 beers on tap including Guinness, Harp and Smithwick’s (pronounced the Irish way, Smiddix)

Drafts change seasonally but you can always count on a great wheat beer, a hard cider and an IPA on tap.

Of course they have a wide selection of whiskeys, offering 32 choices of single malt scotches from all four regions of Scotland, along with a favorite assortment of scotch blends. They are very gentle with their new scotch drinkers and would love to walk you through Scotland tasting their scotches.

They offer a comfortable atmosphere for everyone: diners and drinkers.
