Housing Highlight

We understand that most of you will begin to select housing over the next few months. Some of you may be interested in finding a roommate. HERE you will find a Google Doc that will allow you to express interest in a roommate and housing preferences. While we will not be able to match you to a roommate, we will be able to provide means for you to do so yourself.

Each week we will highlight a student housing option in our area. This week, we will highlight -

Polo Cottages
The Polo Cottages are conveniently located near Wake Forest. This is a limited option as they are not always available for rent. The cottage featured in the pictures above is a classy 2-bedroom Cottage-Style upstairs apartment featuring 2 private master bathroom suites, so this is the ideal place to either live by yourself and have a extra room to use as a study/guest bedroom or to live with a roommate and each only have to pay $425 per month to have a nice place to live. This cottage apartment has a huge private covered Charleston-style porch in the rear with plenty of room for outdoor living overlooking a big grassy back yard. Click HERE to learn more.
